On what point is it proposed to consult him? If it is with regard to the stamp duty payable on the document referred to in the Registrar's letter the consultation is unnecessary for the Registrar has no power to adjudicate on the point & secondly as the Registration Act applies to the Govt. even an adjudication of the stamp duty leviable on the document

If it is proposed to consult the Govt. advocate or the Executive in regard to the general advice which the Registrar wants to be issued under Sec. 9 (a) of the Act. Even then such consultation is unnecessary as the matter is one for the decision of Govt.

From the point of view of the Financial Department, the question is one of reduction of Stamp Revenue, if the request for exemption is granted. If, on other grounds, the grant of ~~the~~ exemption is considered advisable, the financial objection, on the score of reduction of Stamp revenue, need not be pressed for the reason that the University is a State financed Institution and any consideration - direct or indirect - shewn to it may tend to reduce its demands on the Treasury.

To

B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. 1425/Edn. 58-17-59 dated the 13th August 1918 regarding the execution of certain document in connection with the endowment of Pandit Navinam Ramanujacharya to the University, I am directed to state that the Government Advocate has since forwarded a draft of the Deed to be executed between the Pandit and the Vice-Chancellor. It is presumed that the deed has to be stamped in accordance with the stamp Regulation.

There is some doubt as to whether the Deed is to be stamped as a Trust Deed with Rs 15/-/- (62 A in the Schedule under Stamp Regulation) or as a Settlement Deed with Rs 150/-/- (56 in the Schedule)

As the object of such endowments is charitable, and deserves encouragement in all reasonable ways, I am to request that Government may be moved to pass a general order under S. 9(a) of the Regulation, exempting from from Stamp duty all deeds of gift settlement and trust or other transfer in favour of the University of Mysore evidencing endowments to the University.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Offg. Registrar.
